

Sam

Graduate Stylist

GNVQ Level 2 hairdressing

Working towards GNVQ level 3

Sam started his apprenticeship at Chocolate and qualified in 2013 aged 17. Sam is studying GNVQ Level 3; this is learning advanced cutting techniques, colour correction and avant-garde styles. Chocolate is proud of Sam as he trained with them and progressed to graduate stylist. Sam brings a young, individual eye to the salon and displays his love of fashion on his own image. He particularly enjoys designing a completely new look for his clients.

Sam's love of hairdressing comes from his mum who is a successful local stylist; he began assisting her at the age of 12. Sam is a constant source of entertainment in the salon. He shares his birthday with Elvis Presley which for some reason makes Sam think he has an uncanny resemblance to him. He has a HUGE passion for Britney Spears, Old school glamour and quirkiness is Sam's thing. Sam aims to co-host a chat show in the future with his partner in crime and best friend Daisy.

Hobbies: "I enjoy going to the gym because it releases that thing in your body that makes you happy, also I enjoy social networking and socialising."

Guilty pleasure: Britney Spears, music, fake tan, 1940's films and Elvis Presley music.

Favourite Food: McDonalds, deep fried chicken, cheesy chips, Chinese take away... Mainly carbs to be honest!
